3. What information do we collect

In this document “Personal data” means any and all data that relates to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified from that data. In this case, it means personal data that you give us directly or that is provided to us by another named contact for an EQA scheme participant. This definition shall, where applicable, incorporate the definitions provided in the EU Regulation 2016/679 – the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”);

The Personal data we collect from you includes:

- Names, titles, and email addresses of named contacts for EQA scheme participants, supplied during the EQA registration process or during the EQA scheme year.
 - If you are the primary contact for a laboratory, you will need to check with the people whose details you register as the other contacts for your laboratory to make sure that they are happy for you to share their personal information with us and for us to use it in accordance with this privacy policy.
- Names, titles and email addresses of people who ask us to contact them for defined purposes, not related to EQA scheme participation.
- Questions, queries or feedback from you, including your email address if you contact ERNDIM.
- Financial information of people who submit claims for travel or other expenses due to attendance at ERNDIM meetings or successful Grant applications.

We also collect financial information for your Institute during the EQA scheme registration process.

The legal basis for processing the data we collect is to allow us to provide the service(s) you have agreed to (i.e. EQA scheme participation) or given specific consent for.

It is important that the data we hold about you is accurate, please contact us (admin@erndim.org) regarding any changes and updates.

4. Why we need it

We use the data you provide for the purposes of :

- Providing a service in the form of the ERNDIM EQA schemes and support activities related to EQA scheme participation. These include:
 - Administration and financial process related to EQA scheme participation and support activities.
 - Carrying out feedback and other surveys related to EQA scheme participation and support activities.
 - Organising meetings related to EQA scheme participation.
 - Providing you with information related to the EQA schemes and support activities.
- Payment of travel expenses for committee members or recipients of travel grant awards.
- If you provide specific consent, we will also use the data you provide to send you information related to:
 - ERNDIM meetings or ERNDIM events at meetings which are not directly related to EQA scheme participation.
 - Meetings or other activities from third parties approved by ERNDIM.

5. What do we do with your data

We treat all personal data as confidential. The identity of EQA participants is confidential and known only to those persons involved in the operation of the EQA scheme, unless the named contacts for a participating laboratory waives confidentiality for the purpose of discussion and mutual assistance (for example to improve performance).

ERNDIM sub-contracts some EQA and financial activities to supplier organisations. The data we collect may be shared with these sub-contractors for the purposes of EQA participation. All our sub-contractors are required to have a confidentiality agreement within their contract with ERNDIM.

We will not:

- sell or rent your data to third parties
- share your data with third parties for marketing purposes

We will share your data if we are required to do so by law (for example by court order, or to prevent fraud or other crime) or if we are contacted by a regulatory body. If a regulatory body requires the EQA results to be provided directly by ERNDIM we will contact the relevant participants before sharing any information.

6. Where your data is processed and stored

We process data within the EEA and countries deemed by the European Union as having adequate safeguards for protecting personal data. These countries are recognised by the EU as having suitable safeguards for the rights and freedoms of individuals and recourse processes by which data subjects can exercise their rights.

We will only consider transferring your data to a third country which is not recognised by the EU as having suitable safeguards etc. if the either a contractual agreement or data transfer agreement is in place.

7. How long we keep your data for

We will hold your personal data related to EQA scheme participation for as long as you remain a named contact for a laboratory participating in the ERNDIM EQA schemes.

If you stop being a named contact for an existing EQA participant we will hold your details for a maximum of 5 years after you stop being a named contact.

If your laboratory stops participating in the ERNDIM EQA schemes while you are a named contact for the laboratory we will hold your personal information for a maximum of 5 years after the last participating scheme year. After 5 years we will remove personal names and email addresses from the information for previous EQA participants. However, we will store the participation and performance data related to previous EQA participants for 10 years after the last participating scheme year.

If you send us a claim for travel expenses or a travel grant we will hold the full details until the end of the next financial year. After this time we will remove any personal financial information from the documents we hold but we will retain your name and email address for a further 5 years.

If you have consented to us contacting you for purposes other than those related to EQA scheme participation or payment of travel expenses or grant awards, we will keep your data until you tell us that you wish to be removed from the relevant contact list or for a maximum of 5 years after you last gave your consent to be contacted.

If we are storing your information for purposes other than those related to EQA scheme participation or payment of travel expenses or grant awards and you wish to have your personal information removed from our records please contact us at admin@erndim.org

8. Children's privacy protection

Our services are not designed for, or intentionally targeted at, children 13 years of age or younger. We do not intentionally collect or maintain data about anyone under the age of 13.

9. How we protect your data and keep it secure

We are committed to doing all that we can to keep your data secure. We have set up systems and processes to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure of your data.

We also make sure that any third parties that we deal with keep all personal data they process on our behalf secure.

10. Your rights

You have the right to request:

- information about how your personal data is processed.
- a copy of that personal data.
- that anything inaccurate in your personal data is corrected immediately.

You can also:

- raise an objection about how your personal data is processed.
- request that your personal data is erased if there is no longer a justification for it.
- ask that the processing of your personal data is restricted in certain circumstances.

If you have any of these requests, get in contact with our Data Protection Officer.

11. Contact us or make a complaint

Contact the ERNDIM Data Protection Officer (DPO) if you:

- have any questions about anything in this document
 - think that your personal data has been misused or mishandled
